Superintendent

TOM MALONEY

Few of us are marked by destiny to play a grand role on a gigantic stage. However, all of us, no matter how obscure or how humble, own the priceless opportunity to the same degree as the richest or the most powerful man, to contribute what we can within our own sphere to the happiness of mankind. A kind word here, some unselfish little service there, can, when magnified time and time again, become a great wave which will far extend the empire of human happiness. Kindness, sympathy, and understanding in themselves are greatness.

Great artists have a skill which we may not possess. Great industries require "know how" that we may lack. Great hospitals require money which we may not have. Great crusades require physical prowess that may not be ours.

You may have money and lose it. You may be physically fit and lose your health. Great industries may fail. Skilled artists may lose their magic touch. But within every human being, high or low, there is the power to keep within his life those things that reflect kindness, loyalty, justice, bravery, love, and reverence. As long as life lasts there should ever be kindness and justice and loyalty.

Schools are conducting activities which afford the best pupil growth in those "qualities of mercy" without which one's life is empty - thoughtfulness, kindness, fairness, love, consideration, patience, and tolerance - all of which make for full, rich living.

An unknown author contributed to posterity the following words:
"I shall pass through this world but once. Any good therefore that I can do or any kindness that I can show, let me do it now. Let me not defer or neglect it, for I shall not pass this way again."

Assistant Superintendent

PHILIP E. BRAZIL

Dear Boys and Girls,

We urge each of you to rate scholastic achievement highly. Further, we urge that you endeavor to develop to the utmost your study skills and the ability to fully utilize the tools of learning. Also, we encourage you to acquire interests beyond the realm of the textbook because we recognize that the world itself presents a vast source of practical knowledge.

Wholesome leisure time interests in one or several interesting fields such as recreational reading, art, music, sports, sewing, stamp collecting, and hunting will serve to broaden your span of knowledge.

Occasionally review your past and determine how much you have accomplished in terms of schooling. You will see that you have learned a great deal, but then look forward and you will observe that there is still much to do.

Congratulations and success to the members of the Class of 1961. Best wishes to everyone for a happy and restful summer.

Principal

ARTHUR SCHNABEL

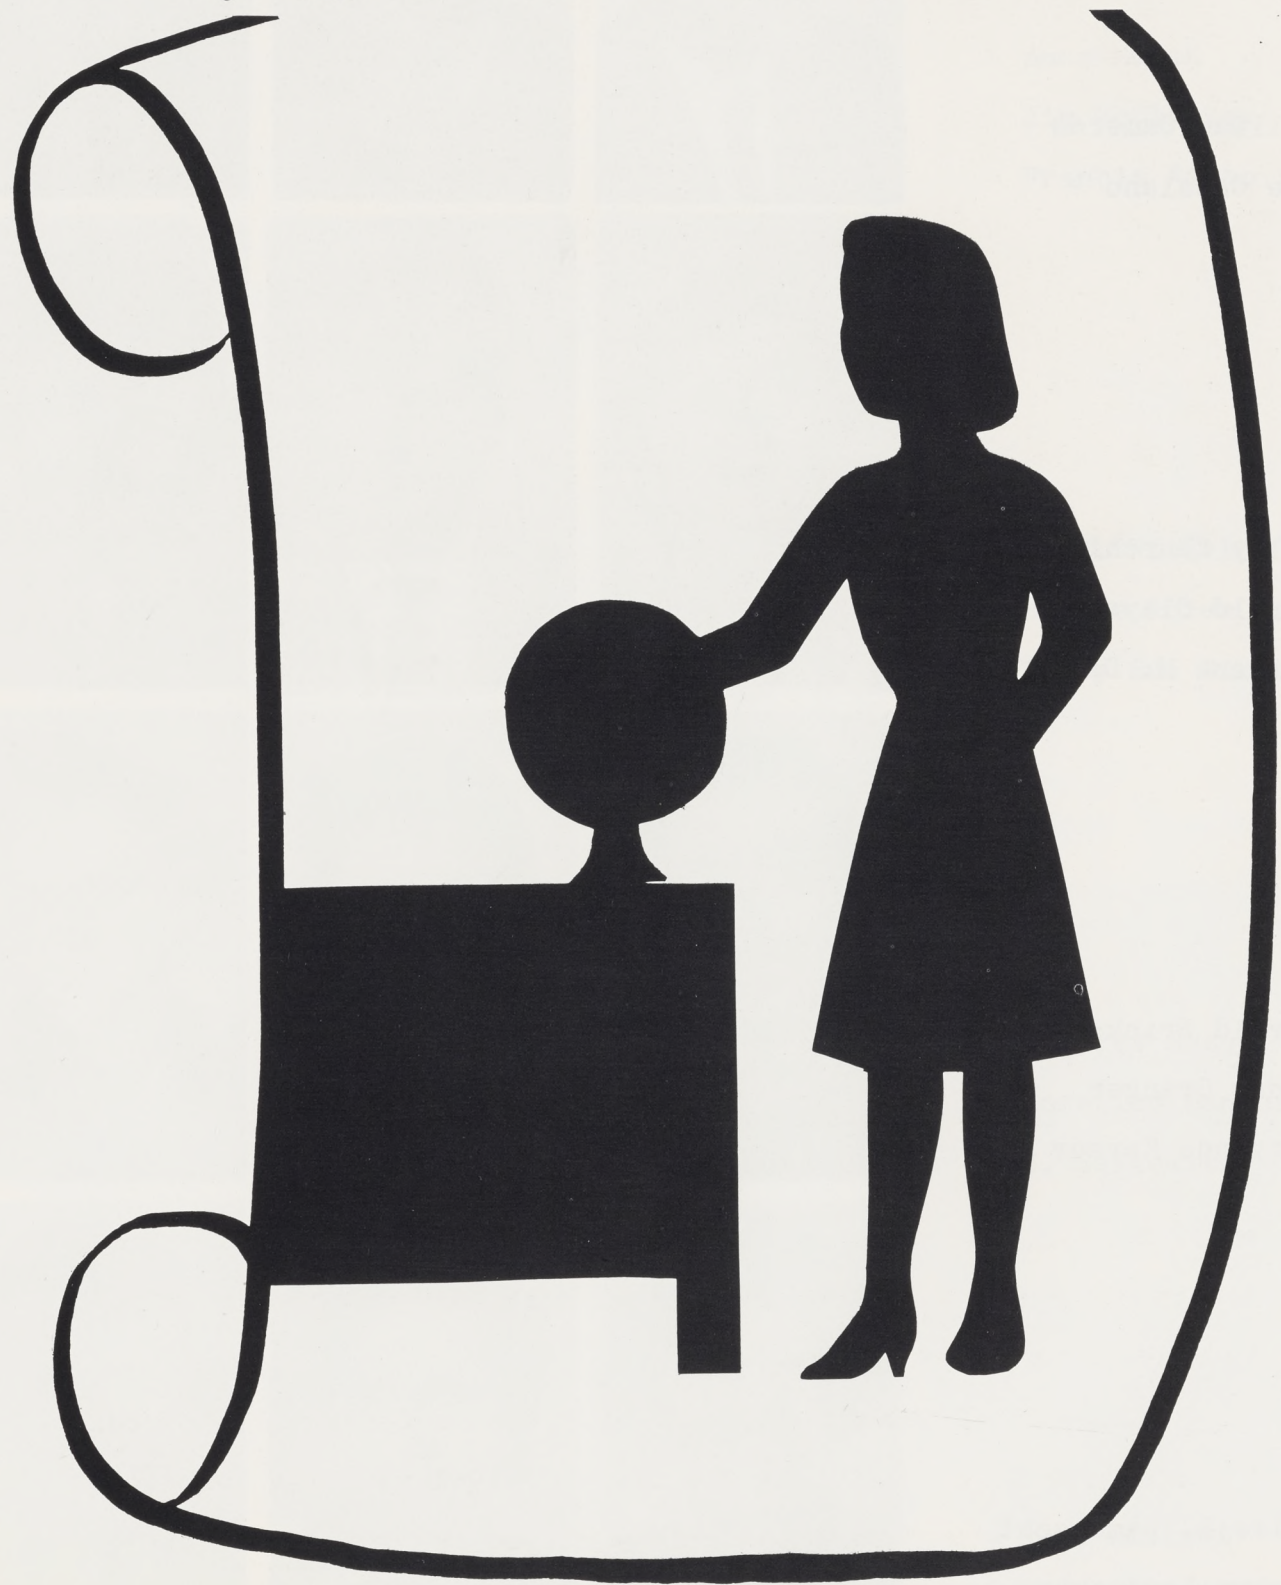

Dear Boys and Girls,

Your cooperation and good attitudes have made this a pleasant and successful school year. It is only as we work together and help each other that we can see progress.

We are proud of our school and the excellent morale that we enjoy here in Centerville. We have high standards because our student body has a good spirit and we work hard to enjoy a school in which we all have pride.

On behalf of the faculty and employees of Centerville School, I would like to congratulate the class of 1961 and wish you good luck. We are expecting great things of you in your future assignment at Washington High School.
